

Title of the Practice I: Introduction of inter-disciplinary certificate courses

College introduced various Certificate courses on inter-disciplinary areas such as 'Law and Psychology', 'Law and logic' and soft skills development for overall personality development of the law students. The objectives for introducing these inter-disciplinary courses include: bringing academic flexibility to suit professional and personal needs of the students, to improve logical reasoning, to understand human behaviour among others. This helps students to stand out and be ready to accept the diverse challenges of legal profession.

These courses created enthusiasm among the students. All three courses were completed successfully.

1) Law and Psychology—the course commenced on 11/02/2020. 29 students participated in this course. Even during pandemic, the course was conducted through online mode and successfully completed through distribution of certificates.

2) Logical Gimmicks – Lawgic – the course commenced on 20/02/2020. 11 students participated in this course. Even during pandemic, the course was conducted through online mode and successfully completed through distribution of certificates

3) Soft Skill Development - the course commenced on 22/08/2019. 37 students participated in this course. Even during pandemic, the course was conducted through online mode and successfully completed through distribution of certificates.

Title of the Practice II: Establishment of clubs - Club Aesthetica, MUN Club, and Parliamentary Debate Club for enhancing skillsets among students

The electric enthusiasm among our students, their zest to initiate productive activities and to match the rhythm and pulse of new age motivated our college to establish MUN Club, Parliamentary Debate Club and Club Aesthetica

MUN Club- MUN Club is an opportunity for students to shape their minds to research global affairs from various perspectives like socio-political, economic, health, nuclear power etc. Various committees promote delegates to study, research and present the topics of their interests.

Club Aesthetica - This club is bound to inculcate, impart and nurture literary instincts of the budding lawyers through the activities like legal commentary, poetry recitation, acting workshop, treasure hunt competition, screening a movie, web series, heritage walks etc.

Activities of this club bridge the gap between law and social sciences. It's a literary club where language is no bar. It sharpens analytical and critical skills of the students which help for overall development of Students.

Parliamentary debate Club- It aims at developing awareness of parliamentary proceedings among the students.

The club has taken active initiatives to conduct the debate sessions on the topics like Capital Punishment, Liberal Feminism, reservation in jobs, Uniform Civil Code, Communal Riots Engineered by Politicians. As the objective of the club is not to mock the parliamentary proceedings, but to have healthy, logical and rational discussions, the club executes its sessions with the set and accepted rules and policies.

Clubs are proven platforms for the students having common set of knowledge and skill. Even during the lockdown period due to the Corona virus pandemic, the clubs were active virtually on social media.
