REPORT

RESEARCH GUIDANCE WORKSHOP FOR AVISHKAR COMPETITION 2025

On 3 September 2025, Legal Research Cell, DES SNFLC had successfully organized an enlightening workshop aimed at orienting students to the nuances of the Avishkar Research Competition. The session was led by Dr. Ketaki Patwardhan Dalvi, the In-charge Principal and Head of Department at TMV's Lokmanya Tilak Law College, Pune. Dr. Dalvi began the workshop with an overview of the Avishkar Competition. Dr. Dalvi emphasised Avishkar's multifaceted objectives: fostering original and novel thinking, providing students with a platform to showcase their academic talents, and facilitating meaningful interaction among academia, R&D institutions, and industry.

Dr. Dalvi imparted best practices on how to choose innovative, impactful research topics, compose effective and visually appealing posters, prepare crisp oral presentations, and attribute adequate time to documentation and formatting requirements. Students were encouraged to align their work with societal relevance to stand out in Avishkar's competitive landscape. During the Q&A segment, eager participants raised thoughtful questions on topic ideation, compliance with submission guidelines, presentation clarity, and the evaluation process. Dr. Dalvi responded with clarity, sharing practical tips and illuminating evaluation expectations extremely helpful for students preparing to embark on their research journey.

The workshop successfully guided the participants about the Avishkar competition process, helping students understand the expectations at each stage while inspiring them to pursue quality research. Attendees left with heightened confidence, empowered by a clear roadmap and elevated readiness to participate.
