Report on Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme

Organized by: Jagruti Pro Bono –Anti-Ragging Committee, DES SNFLC

Date: 28th January 2025

Venue: College Campus

Time: 12:00 Noon

DES's Shri Navalmal Firodia Law College, Pune, organized an Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme on 28th January 2025 within the college campus. The programme aimed to spread awareness about the serious issue of ragging and its legal as well as psychological consequences, while promoting a safe, respectful, and inclusive campus environment.

As part of the programme, a street play (nukkad natak) was performed by students to effectively communicate the harsh realities and impact of ragging. The performance portrayed both the physical and emotional trauma faced by victims and highlighted the importance of standing against such practices.

Participants of the Street Play:

- Nandini
- Parnavi Mhaske
- Smruti Mehta
- Saish Navandar
- Vidhi Trivedi
- Priya Lonkar
- Sanskruti Pendharkar
- Shambhavi
- Shravani Randhe

Their impactful performance successfully engaged the audience and conveyed a strong message against ragging.

Objectives of the Programme

- To raise awareness among students about the harmful effects of ragging
- To inform students about the legal consequences associated with ragging
- To encourage a culture of respect, dignity, and inclusivity within the campus

The street play received an enthusiastic response from students and faculty members. The realistic portrayal of incidents and emotions created awareness and encouraged reflection among the audience.

At the end of the programme, students collectively took a pledge to abstain from any form of ragging and to actively contribute towards maintaining a ragging-free campus environment.

The Anti-Ragging Awareness Programme proved to be a significant step towards reinforcing the institution's commitment to zero tolerance against ragging. Through creative expression and active student participation, the programme successfully fostered awareness and promoted a safer and more inclusive academic atmosphere
