Report on Poster Making Competition- Organised by the Anti-Ragging Cell of DES Shri Navalmal Firodia Law College, Pune.

The Anti-Ragging Cell of DES Shri Navalmal Firodia Law College, Pune successfully organised a Poster Making Competition on the theme "Anti-Ragging – Freedom from Fear is Every Student's Right" from 23rd to 26 August 2025. The competition was aimed at spreading awareness about the importance of creating a safe and inclusive learning environment where students can pursue education without fear or harassment.

Students from various batches actively participated in the competition, showcasing their creativity, imagination, and concern towards the issue of ragging in academic institutions. The posters reflected powerful messages, blending art with social responsibility. They highlighted the legal implications of ragging, the emotional and psychological impact on victims, and the collective responsibility of students and institutions in eradicating this menace.

The judging criteria included creativity, relevance to the theme, clarity of message, and artistic presentation. The best posters were appreciated for their originality and impactful representation of the theme. The Competition was judged by the members of the Anti Ragging Committee Cell.

The competition not only provided students with a platform to express themselves but also reinforced the college's commitment to upholding the UGC Anti-Ragging Regulations and ensuring a ragging-free campus. Through this initiative, the Anti-Ragging Cell reaffirmed the message that freedom from fear is indeed every student's right and ragging in any form will not be tolerated.
